Municipal conflict of interest requirements as defined by the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act will apply to the Committee. Municipal Conflict of Interest Act

Yes it applies to members of Committees and Boards!

The Municipal Conflict of Interest Act (MCIA) defines a member as member of a council or a local board, this means that even though you are not a member of Council, as a member of a committee of Council you must adhere to the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act. This act sets out ethical rules for members of council and local boards if they have certain pecuniary (financial) interests in a matter that is before their council or local board at a meeting. For example, a member may have to take steps if they are present at a council or local board meeting where the member's land will be discussed.

A member with a pecuniary (financial) interest is required – with certain exceptions – to:

- Disclose the interest and its general nature before the matter is considered at the meeting
- Not to take part in the discussion or voting on any question in respect of the matter
- Not attempt to influence the voting, before, during or after the meeting
- Immediately leave the meeting, if the meeting is closed to the public

The Municipal Conflict of Interest Act will generally prohibit members of a council or local board from using their office to attempt to influence decisions or recommendations being considered by municipal or local board employees (or by persons with authority delegated from council), if the member has a pecuniary interest in the matter could not, in most instances, try to influence a decision or recommendation of a municipal employee who is considering the matter. A member who discloses a pecuniary interest at a meeting will be required to file a written statement of their interest, either at the meeting or as soon as possible afterwards.

Municipalities and local boards are required to establish and maintain a registry of statements and declarations of interests of members and make it available for public inspection.
